Step 7. Photos & logo

Let visitors taste the atmosphere of your accommodation in at least 5 clear photos (front and side view, interior, facilities and surroundings). We would like to receive these at materiel@iccs-europe.com via WeTransfer in high resolution.

We prefer to receive the logo landscape and in the format 334x223 or a comparable ratio.

Step 8. Terms and Conditions

By using the services and the website of Glampings you indicate that you agree with our terms and conditions.

The information

The information about the accommodation is provided by the accommodation owner and supplemented and/or adapted by Glampings. When your listing goes live, you automatically agree to the use of the text and images and the correctness of the prices.

Use of images

All images on Glampings are carefully selected and come directly from the accommodation owners. Stock photos must be royalty-free. The use and/or supply of copyrighted photos is not permitted.

Glampings is regularly approached for media expressions in newspapers, magazines and in blog articles. The supplied visual material may also be used to draw extra attention to your accommodation in media expressions.

Creation of bookings and settlement of disputes

Glampings only mediates between accommodation owners and visitors to the website. Glampings is therefore not an intermediary in the booking and therefore not a party in any disputes about the booking and/or its implementation.

Duration statement

The annual listing only takes effect from the date the article is online on Glampings.nl and/or Glampings.de. One month before the listing expires, ICCS Europe will receive an invoice for extending the annual listing. If you do this within the specified period, the listing will be automatically extended. If the amount is not paid within the set term, the listing will be cancelled.
